

In support of your application for a Québec selection certificate in the investors, entrepreneurs and self-employed workers subcategory, you must submit a narrative document that explains the acquisition of all of your funds. This document is one of the documents that you must submit with your application for a Québec selection certificate. The completed application must be signed and dated.

Instructions

- Based on the suggested narrative framework below, provide a detailed work history and indicate the total gross income that you have received and the business and family investments that you made during a given work period. Reproduce the narrative framework to add new work periods. The amounts must be indicated in the local currency.
- Present the work periods chronologically, from the earliest to the most recent. Events in a given period must also be presented in chronological order. Produce a single table for each work period. A work period begins when you receive income (salary, dividends or other income) from a new company. Fill out a separate table for each enterprise if you received or are receiving remuneration from more than one enterprise during a given period.
- In this guide, the term “enterprise” indicates the organization from which you receive remuneration, whether as an employee, an owner or a shareholder.
- If you have recourse, in whole or in part, to the net worth of your spouse or de facto spouse who accompanies you to qualify for the net worth threshold applicable to your subcategory, both of you must fill out this document. In this case, your spouse or de facto spouse who accompanies you must fill out his or her own narrative document.
